CDH Investment Bank aids flood victims in Phalombe and Chiradzulu districts - 11th May 2019

Highlights

About the day

CDH Investment Bank (CDHIB)

on 11th May 2019 donated items worth K5.3 million to communities affected by Cyclone Idai in Phalombe and Chiradzulu districts. The items included blankets, maize flour, beans, plastics and cooking oil.

Speaking at Bona Primary School in the area of Traditional Authority Jenela in Phalombe, CDHIB Chief Finance Officer, Beatrix Mosiwa Ndovi, said the bank was touched by the damage caused by Idai. "When we heard of the suffering caused by Idai, we decided to play our part by donating a little something to reduce the suffering. It is our hope that the donation we have made today will go a long way easing plight of the survivors," Ndovi said.

Group Village Head Bona hailed CDHIB for the donation. She said the affected communities lack things such as food and shelter. Phalombe Assistant District Risk Management Officer, Davie Chibani said the donation by CDHIB had come at a right time.
